

Stuyvesant High School Alumni Association 2016 Board of Director Nominees

Edward Balaban '69

Edward E. Balaban is a class of 1969 alumnus. He earned a BS in Industrial Arts Education from SUNY Oswego, completed a MS in Journalism/Public Relations from Syracuse University and was awarded a CAS in Educational Administration from Hofstra University. Balaban's careers progressed from teacher to Navy Officer to school administrator and then to public affairs specialist. Concurrent with each position, he held several leadership positions at Lions International. He has long supported Stuyvesant High School, coordinating his class' reunions, as well as other alumni and veteran organizations. Balaban is retired and lives near Saratoga Springs, New York.

Daniel Egers, J.D. '03

Dan Egers was elected to the Board in 2013 and has been active with the Alumni Association since 2007 when he co-founded the Conor Moran Memorial Scholarship. He is Chair of the Allocations and Scholarships Committee and a member of the Governance Committee. He is a practicing attorney with Greenberg Traurig, LLP specializing in land use and zoning, and is a graduate of Georgetown University and Columbia Law School. Dan has served as a Trustee of the Murray Hill Neighborhood Association and the Bayside Historical Society. He and his wife, Kelly, live on the Upper East Side.

Brett Lewis '02

Brett Lewis is an alumnus of the class of 2002. He attended McGill, LSE and Wharton and currently works in strategy and private equity. He is passionate about Stuyvesant (second generation Stuyvesantian), has been involved in planning his class' 10-year reunion and has been attending board meetings. He has worked on non-profit boards at Bridgespan, is passionate about strategic planning and using digital innovation to continue the success of the alumni association.

Vanessa Liu, J.D. '92

As Chief Operating Officer of Trigger Media Group, Vanessa Liu is a venture investor and operator specializing in founding and developing innovative new media businesses. Her position allows her to combine her passions for digital media, entrepreneurship and public service. A Fulbright Scholar, Liu studied in the Netherlands where she researched the World Court and International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia. With an interest in education, she is also an Elected Director of the Harvard Alumni Association. "Stuyvesant was a transformative place for me as a student, and I continue to be inspired and impacted by Stuyvesant through the alumni I regularly meet. By serving an additional term as Director, I plan on continuing the impact I've made, particularly in building the school's endowment."

E. James "Jim" Stergiou '67

Native of NYC, product of NYC public schools, child of Greek Immigrants, William and Anita Stergiou. Ed is CEO of SG a risk, an international actuarial consulting firm. He is a Fellow of the Casualty Actuarial Society, Member of American Academy of Actuaries and Int'l Actuarial Association. Graduate, 1971, from CCNY, BS in Math. Married (Roseanne), two grown children, Bill and Andy and two Grandchildren, Molly and Benji. Ed serves on CCNY Board of Directors For Fund For Giving (Scholarship selections). Funded the William and Anita Stergiou Scholarship at Stuyvesant for over 25 years, with 20 students being awarded every year, as selected by the Math Dept. Funded three full William and Anita Stergiou Scholarships annually at CCNY, as selected by CCNY Board. Contributed funds to my Jr. High School, so the 8th Grade Class can attend Broadway Shows. On the Board of several insurance companies and other charitable entities awarding Scholarships

Boaz Weinstein '91

Boaz attended University of Michigan. He headed up the Credit Derivatives Desk at Deutschebank before starting his own hedge fund, Saba Capital. He says, "Stuyvesant is very special to me. My closest friends are from Stuyvesant and I feel it is important to give back to the school that has given me so much. I would like to be a part of the team that helps to ensure that Stuyvesant remains at the pinnacle of public education." He would like to give his time and finances to the organization.